- February 11 Disney's Club Penguin Activity Adventure by Katherine Noll
 Get ready to dive into the world of Club Penguin and explore your favorite characters, places and games, parties, mini-games, and more. Activity session follows.
 Grades 3-6 Course Code: YTHY9147-U1
- March 10 Wolf's Coming! by Joe Kulka
 Look out - Wolf's coming! When the animals hear a howl and see a shadowy figure, they head for home and then glowing eyes appear in the window and the front door opens...but it's the reader who is in for the biggest surprise. Visit www.joekulka.com to learn more.
 Grades K-4 Course Code: YTHY9148-U1
- March 31 The Princess and the Swan by Ryke Leigh Douglas
 Long ago and far away on an island in a mystic sea, there lived a princess who dreamed of finding a handsome prince. Join author Ryke Leigh Douglas as she tells this magical tale about the princess's journey to find her prince.
 Grades 1-4 Course Code: YTHY9149-U1
- May 19 Abe Lincoln: The Boy Who Loved Books by Kay Winters
 A children's storybook that tells about the life of one of our most important Presidents. He grew up on a farm. His father and the neighbors thought he was lazy. He would rather read than plow. He loved books. They changed his life. He changed ours.
 Grades K-4 Course Code: YTHY9150-U1

First Saturdays Sponsored by Just Born, Inc.

- January 14 Bugs!
 Bears aren't the only ones that hibernate! Come explore the wonderful world of bugs. Learn about their diversity and some of their fascinating behaviors. Slide show, critter craft and build-a-bug activity included.
- February 4 Great Person's Valentine Tea Party!
 Children get the chance to treat their sweetest grown-up to tea and goodies. Share some quality time reading together, and craft a homemade Valentine.
- March 3 Jamie O'Rourke and the Big Potato by Tomie DePaola
 Northampton Community College theatre students re-tell this popular Irish folktale of potato farmer Jamie O'Rourke, "the laziest man in all of Ireland," whose wife does all the work. When she hurts her back, Jamie catches a leprechaun who promises him a seed that will grow the biggest potato in the world. St. Patrick's Day craft included.
- April 14 Pretzel Day!
 Celebrate National Pretzel Day. Twist and bake your own pretzel, courtesy of downtown Bethlehem treat shop, Stations Cafe. Learn how pretzels became a Pennsylvania favorite. Then, enjoy a reading of "Pretzel," by Curious George author, H.A.Rey. Love blooms when the longest dachshund in the world wins the heart of an unlikely admirer.
- May 5 Wings of Spring!
 Use pasta shapes to create the life cycle of a butterfly, when Bear Mountain Butterfly Sanctuary's own Butterfly Lady stops by. Watch a short movie on butterflies, and then witness an actual butterfly release outside!
